

Friends of the Meadows and Bruntsfield Links

SPRING TALK

Tales of The Southside – Four Cameos

The arrival in Edinburgh in September 1745 of Bonnie Prince Charlie; the eccentric Lord Gardenstone who stayed at Morningside House; the meeting of Robert Burns and young Walter Scott at Sciennes House and young Duncan Napier's memories of the Morningside of the 1830s.

A Misadventure; an eccentric judge; an afternoon tea party and some childhood memories'

by Eric Melvin MA DipEd MEd

Eric Melvin is a retired teacher of History and Modern Studies, and former Head Teacher at Currie Community High School. Author of several books about Edinburgh history, and an Edinburgh Festival Voluntary Guide, Eric has lectured extensively to groups of all ages.

When ? Monday 22 April 2024 7pm

Where ? Barclay Viewforth Church (1 Wright's Houses, EH10 4HN)

ALL WELCOME

Refreshments provided

Admission free to FOMBL members